Conditions of Entry:

JUDGING

The National Association of Falcon GT Clubs Inc. sets out the detailed Judging Guidelines and Sheets which can be found at the following link: <http://www.nafgtc.asn.au>. All vehicles entered into the GT Nationals must be submitted for inspection, entrant number processing, prejudging and photography on the nominated scrutineering day(s).

VEHICLE JUDGED YES/NO:

An Owner can choose to not participate in final judging on the entry form, which will preclude the entry from Silver certificate or any other judged award participation. (Non-judged awards are Distance travelled/Hard luck). If the vehicle presented is late or does not match the completed vehicle details on the entry form it will be deemed not for judging. Vehicles found at inspection to not be genuine GT's will be deemed associate vehicles or not for judging. Modern Era vehicles less than 15 years/15,000 km and less than 1000km/year since build date are not for judging.

VEHICLE DETAILS:

MODEL:	This is the description from the Ford GT model number on the ID plate (including sub-category) or Associate e.g. XA GT Hardtop (RPO 83); XY GTHO Sedan BF2 GTP Sedan
VIN:	The JG33/JG66/6FPAAAJG identification number of the vehicle
ENGINE/CHASSIS:	The LD/GE/GF/GL/GJ/FPV engine or chassis number if different to the VIN
COLOUR:	The primary vehicle colour from the id plate and actual colour if different to factory colour.
REGO NO:	All Nationals entrants require a legal registration number, if they are to be driven on Public Roads

JUDGING CLASSES:

OU	Unrestored Original - vehicle has predominantly original factory paint over the whole car
OM	Maintained Original - vehicle has had an external only respray. E.g. Engine bay, boot, undercarriage are original paint
OR	Restored Original - vehicle has been mostly resprayed
OC	Original Contemporary – Older restored cars with period correct accessories.
MM	Modified - vehicle has significant engineering/structural modifications from original factory specification
NJ	Not for Judging

NB: Vehicles will be judged according to the owner's classification so please request advice at scrutineering if you are unsure. Preliminary Judging will determine vehicles for Silver (good or very good in the 6 overall scores) OR Gold (excellent or 75% of detailed score sheet total) Only Gold and Platinum class entries are eligible for a Trophy.
